

Emmett Leith

Optical Sciences
Laboratory

Train and Bird" is the first hologram ever made with a laser using the off-axis technique. This pioneer image was produced in 1964 by Emmett Leith and Juris Upatnieks at the University of Michigan only four years after the invention of the laser

- Optical Mamography
- Imaging through scattering material
- Electronic Holography