

Enjoy solving problems?

Want to make yourself
more marketable to employers?

Want to know more about computer programming and use it to complement your current concentration?

Consider the...

Computer Science Minor

Talk to an Advisor...

Contact the EECS Undergraduate Advising Office to set up an appointment:

734/763-2305

(We also offer advising hours in Angell Hall - Call the EECS office for details!)

Requirements for the minor:

Prerequisites to Minor Coursework:

MATH 115 & prior programming experience (EECS 183, ENGR 101, or equivalent)

Minor Program Courses (16 credits of courses as follows):

Three Core Courses (4 credits each)-

EECS 203: Discrete Mathematics, EECS 280: Programming and Introductory Data Structures, and EECS 281:
Data Structures and Algorithms

Electives- At least one 4-credit elective selected from EECS 482, 483, 484, 487, 490, 492, or 493.

[Note: The CS Minor is not available to EECS program concentrators]

For additional EECS program information, visit:

www.eecs.umich.edu/eecs/undergraduate

Department of Electrical Engineering & Computer Science

Undergraduate Advising Office: 3415 EECS, ugadmin@eecs.umich.edu