FINAL DRILL PUTS VARSITY IN SAD LIGHT

With Cornell Game Near at Hand Regulars Make Poor Showing in Last Scrimmage of Season.

LINEUP OF WOLVERINES IS AS YET PUZZLE TO SOLVE.

Long Rehearsal of Year is Over and All is in Readiness for Big Show Tomorrow.

As far as the faithful scrubs are concerned, the football season of 1912 is over and now their reward will be in seeing the Varsity win Saturday. But evidently realizing that yesterday would be the last, these same pets of Hill Smith turned on the first string men last night and made them work to gain two touchdowns while the lowly ones were tallying once. And when the darkness interfered the scrubs had the ball well down in the Varsity territory and might have scored again. And turning again, they forced Yost to put every regular except Craig and Paterson into the battle to gain the close decision.

Maulbetsch and Young Star for Scrubs

It was not a flowery showing that the Varsity made and it did not inspire the coaches with a deep feeling of confidence. Time and again Maulbetsch tore through the line and Young skirted the ends. And time and again the scrubs stopped the Varsity attack. It was not until nearly all the regulars were playing that the scrubs were repulsed and scrimmage was called off for another long year. Then all the regulars went in, and up and down the field they ran through signals, driven on by the dozen coaches and polishing, polishing, the new plays for the benefit of Cornell. There is one bright spot in the horizon however. There exists in both theatricals and athletics a superstition that a poor last rehearsal means a fine show and if this comes true a victory is in sight.

Pontius Is Sent Back to End.

It's just a bit too early to make any predictions as to the outcome of the battle, but it's not too early to dope the lineup and from the meager information given out by Yost the arrangement seems to be settled. As usual before big games, the final shift has come, and it may surprise the campus more or less. Unless today sees another sudden change in the coach's plans the makeup of the team is a foregone conclusion and is the same as in the O. S. U. game. Pontius has been sent back to end, the job he held down in the early part of the season and up until the Syracuse game. Pairing the big fellow there seems to indicate that Michigan will use forward passes a lot as he is good at grabbing them. Pontius and Torbet will hold down the extremities.

At tackles, Cole and Musser will perform. The shifting of Pontius left one tackle open and Yost has picked Musser for the job probably on his defensive showing which has been good. Quinn and Almendinger will be at guard. A bit of bright news comes in that Paterson will start at center. And in case "Bubbles" does not last Barton will succeed him. Huebel will start at quarter and Craig and Thomson will be in their berths. Hughitt has been picked to start at right half, and judging from the game, the little fellow put up at Penn he will stay the game out. This is the lineup at the present moment and it is probable that it will remain this way.

There are many on the campus who

RECITAL PROVES A SUCCESS.

Carrie Jacobs Bond Pleases Audience at Y. W. C. A. Last Evening.

Those who heard Carrie Jacobs Bond in her song recital given last night under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. were charmed with her pleasing personality, her sweetly-modulated voice, and her subtle interpretation of the virtues of the common-place phases of life. Mrs. Bond's enthusiasm for the every-day affairs of existence is somewhat akin to Browning's fascination for homely detail. The audience was especially pleased with her rendition of "The City Visitor," "Just a Wearyin' For You," "The Shepherdess," and lullabies.

"CAP" REDDEN IS SECURED TO AID YOST

Services of Old Time Football Star Have Been Procured by Authorities for 1913 Football Season.

WAS SELECTED BY YOST ALL-TIME, ALL-MICHIGAN END.

Will Take Place Occupied by "Indian" Schulte in Coaching Staff This Year.

Curtis G. Redden, familiarly known as "Cap" Redden, and Yost's choice for end on his All-Time, All- Michigan team, will be Michigan's assistant football coach for the season of 1913. This is the announcement that was given out yesterday, following Redden's week of assisting Coach Fielding H. Yost in training the Wolverines for the Cornell battle.

Redden has assisted Yost in training Michigan teams for a number of years past. Heretofore he has always arrived in Ann Arbor about the middle of the season and remained through as assistant coach until the season's close. This season the plan of having the assistant coach on the job the entire season was tried, and "Indian" Schulte was secured to fill the position as first understudy of Yost. Redden came on to Ann Arbor this year when he felt that the team needed him.

Columbia Educator Gives Final Lecture

Prof. E. L. Thorndyke, of Columbia university, gave his last lecture before the Educational club yesterday afternoon. His subject was "The Significance of Man's Original Nature." He developed the idea that the primitive instincts of man are not naturally adapted to education, but that they may be trained in this direction almost indefinitely.

Purchase Equipment for Auto Course.

Magnetos and other equipment for the new "automobile course" are being purchased by Prof. D. F. Bailey of the engineering department. Considerable interest is being manifested in this course on the part of students, and a good enrollment is expected when it is commenced next semester.

BIG EVENT IS ALUMNI SMOKER

Old Grads Who Attend Game Will Be Tagged With Class Cards to Announce Get-Together.

SOPHS REPORT AT UNION AT 4:00.

Final preparations will be made today for the reception smoker to be tendered the visiting alumni tomorrow evening at the Michigan Union. There will be men, at incoming trains and cars, and at Ferry field, who will try to give each alumnus a maize and blue button-hole tag announcing the smoker and asking him to register at the Union after the game. Ann Arbor will be placarded, fraternities given posters and a great sign swung across State street.

Although the smoker proper will not begin until after dinner, appropriate place cards bearing the scores of former big games, and the words of The Yellow and the Blue, have been provided for those of the alumni who may eat at the Union. The program will begin about 7:00 o'clock, in the big dining room, which will be decorated with banners bearing the numerals of past classes, so that each class may be together. An effort will also be made to secure for the occasion a number of Michigan's finest trophies, the "Jug" among them.

"Michigan Spirit" will be the slogan during the informal program, which is to consist of speeches by prominent alumni and faculty men, and piano, string, and vocal music. There will be no dearth of cider and "smokes."

The committee on arrangements asks for forty or fifty volunteers from the Sophomore classes, to report at the Union this afternoon at 4:00 o'clock to serve on committees on preparations.

WEBSTER SOCIETY PLANS NEW MEMBER PROGRAM TONIGHT.

Webster society, tonight, will have a "new member" program. The debate for the evening will be on the question, Resolved, That U. S. vessels passing through the Panama canal should be charged toll. The affirmative will be represented by W. F. Spikes, E. E. Franklin and J. S. Dominus, and the negative by William Strachan, M. E. Mills and F. M. Bolin.

Polish Society to Plan Celebration.

A meeting of the Polish literary society will be held tonight at 7:00 o'clock at 712 Arch street. The exact date will be set for the first of the Polish national celebrations to be held in the new engineering building in the near future.

FIFTY "HOOSIERS" MEET TO FORM STATE ORGANIZATION.

Fifty enthusiastic Indiana students met last night at the Union and made preliminary plans for the formation of a "Hoosier" club. F. L. Steffens, '14L, was elected temporary chairman, and committees for drawing up a constitution and making arrangements for a smoker, were appointed. Permanent organization will be effected at the smoker.

Altos Needed for Choral Union Series.

Professor A. A. Stanley is searching for second altos to take part in the Choral union concert next spring. There has never been such a dearth of material as this year and since these parts play an important role this season it is absolutely necessary that some good voices be found.

Delivers Lecture on South America.

The first of the four lectures on South America by the Rev. Geo. W. Knepper, pastor of the Church of Christ, was given yesterday afternoon at the Bible Chair building. The subject was "The Physical Features of South America." The next lecture will be given next Thursday at 4:00 o'clock.

Fresh Laws to Hold Smoker Monday.

"Something different" is the way the fresh laws are advertising their "purity smoker," which they will give at the Union next Monday night. Eats, smokes, cider, talks, and music will be furnished for the sum of 25 cents.

DECIDE TO CURB DEMONSTRATIONS

No Excessive Exuberance of Spirit will be Tolerated After the Cornell Game.

COUNCIL PLANS NO CELEBRATION

Rumor has persisted for several days on the campus that stringent measures would be taken to curb excessive exuberance of spirit on the part of the students after the Cornell game tomorrow if the demonstrations should assume the form and magnitude of exhibitions similar to those at the close of football seasons in the past.

The student council has expressed sentiment decidedly against the students assembling for the purpose of moving enmass on the down town district, and annoying residents and business people there. It made no provisions for a celebration this year in the event of a victory for Michigan as has been the custom in past seasons.

The course which many of the saloonkeepers will pursue tomorrow in regard to conducting their business during the rush hours after the game is expected to eliminate possible unpleasantness. They will maintain a careful watch to see that customers do not imbibe too freely, and they will refuse to serve persons seemingly intoxicated.

Police Will Insure Order.

The police authorities will maintain the same course of procedure that has prevailed in the past, and will take every measure to insure order, although making no attempt to interfere with legitimate demonstrations on the part of the students.

Chief of police Apfel has mapped out a course for vehicle traffic on state street tomorrow afternoon. This was found very necessary owing to the press of traffic which will prevail on that thoroughfare at the time, and it is expected that the crowds will be handled in such a manner that accidents can be avoided, and the blockading of traffic eliminated.

Rules for Vehicles at Ferry Field.

No vehicles will be permitted to stand near the gates of Ferry field, and all drivers of automobiles must turn east on Arch street or south into Edwin street when traveling on State street.

Bull dogs must bear a license, and be properly muzzled or led by a strong leash.

Prof. Hoad Leaves for Nebraska.

Prof. William C. Hoad, of the civil engineering department, left last night for Nebraska. He will be gone for about a week in connection with several law cases, in which his testimony as an expert water supply engineer will be required. He will also answer in several cases in the Kansas courts.

DAILY TO ISSUE YELLOW EXTRA.

Will Contain Features of Game and Cuts of Varsity Stars.

Tomorrow The Michigan Daily will have a sport extra for sale immediately after the Cornell game. Last year more than 3,000 copies of the Penn game edition were sold, and as this year's yellow sheet will contain many added features, over 4,000 are expected to be disposed of.

Among the many interesting articles in the special issue will be a story of the game play by play with cuts of 18 gridiron men in the contest, an All-class team picked from the players participating in the interclass series, and a detailed account of the visitors who are here for the game.

Must Leave Forms With Committee.

All students who have enrolled with the teacher's appointment committee and have not yet made out their permanent enrollment forms are reminded that the registrar's office will be open for this purpose from 1:00 to 6:00 o'clock this afternoon. A fine of one dollar will be placed on those applicants who fail to leave these forms with the committee before 6:00 p. m. today.

WIRELESS TO REPORT GAME TO BIG OHIO NEWSPAPERS.

University Station Sends Messages 1,000 Miles; Recently Communicated With Vancouver.

Arrangements are being made to report the progress of the Cornell-Michigan game at ten minute intervals to Cleveland and Toledo newspapers by the university wireless station. Indications also show that the local station will soon be in communication with the Ohio State University wireless station.

A direct telephone wire from Ferry field has been secured for the university operators, and frequent reports will be sent out to all stations within a radius of 1,000 miles.

Pacific coast communications will soon be a reality if the performance of Tuesday night can be repeated, when messages were exchanged with a Vancouver station. Efforts to reaffirm these communications will be made by letter.

Grad to Speak at School Assembly.

Starr Lasher, '11, auditor of state department of public instruction, will speak before an assembly of the school officials of Washtenaw county at the court house today. He will discuss phases of instruction in school law improvement and legislation. While in Ann Arbor he will remain over to witness the Cornell game.

LAST PLANS COMPLETE FOR MASS MEETING

Assistant Prof. Frayer, Allen H. Frazier, '82, and "Morrie" Myers to Speak at Mammoth Get-Together.

STUDENT BODY WILL VOTE ON VARSITY MANAGER QUESTION

Cornell and Michigan Teams May Be There; No Admittance Without Tickets.

Preparations for the big mass meeting in University hall tonight at 7:00 o'clock, were completed yesterday when the consent of a prominent alumnus to appear was received, the services of Assistant Prof. W. A. Frayer to represent the faculty obtained, and a popular student chosen to preside over the gathering.

Allan H. Frazier, '82, member of the Detroit bar and former prosecuting attorney of Wayne county, is slated to make the principal speech of the evening. Prof. Frayer is a graduate of Cornell university and taught there for several years before coming to Michigan. He will act as the faculty representative. "Morrie" Myers is the one upon whose shoulders has fallen the task of acting in the capacity of presiding officer and of guiding the destiny of the mammoth spirit revival.

Advantage will be taken of this opportunity for determining the sentiment of the student body in regard to the proposed change in the method of electing the Varsity managers and substituting the competitive system now in vogue at most of the eastern universities. The resolution was passed upon favorably by the board of athletic directors with the provision that student opinion be necessary for its adoption. President John Coolidge of the board will read the resolution and call for a standing vote.

Coach Yost was asked if the team could inspire the cheering with their presence, but only an indefinite answer returned. "They can come if we decide not to have a signal quiz at that same time," was the coach's answer. Effort will also be made to have the Cornell squad present and in the event of this being effected, speeches will probably be asked for from their coach and captain.

Secure Tickets at Athletic Association.

No one can gain admittance to the hall who is not provided with a ticket given out at the Athletic association office. The tickets are issued in two colors, drab admitting to the balcony, and green passing the bearer on to the main floor.

"Whitey" Ochs to lead and egg on the voice cultivation, "Cam" Trible to conduct the melodies and "Lyndy" on deck with the pictures of the team, will be there.

Dr. Cook Lectures on Cement Industry

Dr. C. W. Cook, of the geological department, lectured last evening in the Russell seminary room of the museum on "The Cement Industry of Michigan." He told interesting facts about the development of this industry and discussed it from the point of view of the geologist.

Will Interest All Michigan Men.

This week's issue of the Saturday Evening Post contains a half page print of the Ferry field entrance gates. Even though the picture is used in connection with an advertisement it ought to make any Michigan man "feel good all over" to look at it.
