PITTSBURGERS PRESENT GAME IN TWO INNINGS

Contest, Which Appeared as Pitcher's Battle Is Won by Michigan's Long Distance Hits; Score 6 to 1.

BARBEAU GIVES EXCELLENT EXHIBITION OF PITCHING

Game Is By Far the Best One Seen on Ferry Field This Season.

Two innings caused the downfall of Pittsburgh in yesterday's game, and spoiled what looked like an air-tight pitcher's battle between Harenski and Baribeau. In those two innings by the judicious use of three baggers and home runs, coupled with an error or so and a pass, the Wolverines garnered six runs and left the smoky city team far in the rear, they only boasting of one little marker. It was by far the best ball game on the home lot this year and Baribeau gave a very pretty exhibition of pitching.

It is a mistaken idea to believe that the smoke eaters cannot play ball. Except for a couple of ordinary misplays their fielding was above average and their general team work was far above that of other teams seen here this year. A peevish gent with the name of Harenski essayed to twirl for the visitors and he had the stuff. He only allowed Michigan seven hits but he made the fatal Merkle of allowing them to be bunched where they counted. Baribeau allowed as many bingles but he scattered them over the entire game and was never really in danger. With men on bases he worked with better effect and his twelve strikeouts seems to indicate he had something on the ball. It was perhaps the best game he has pitched since the Penn contests last spring and shows that he is rounding into form early.

Varsity Makes No Errors.

In the fielding line the Wolverines put up a beautiful exhibition and played an errorless game, there only being one play that could be questioned. The team seemed to have plenty of fight and their hits were long, the seven swats bringing a total of seventeen bases which is some slugging. Sisler as usual picked the spot light circle by slamming out another homer, while Rogers, Webber, and Baribeau each hit for three sacks.

The game had one feature that was not missed by the rather small crowd. A Mr. McKean appeared as an alleged umpire, but only a generous and genial sense of humor, coupled with a vivid imagination could yield him any praise in that role. His work was really lamentable and Pittsburgh seemed to be the victim of his practical jokes. His work, if such it could be called, on balls and strikes was a striking advertisement for some opti-

CLASS BASEBALL TO BEGIN TODAY

Double Header to be Staged; Fresh vs. Soph Lits and Fresh Laws vs. Pharmies.

TO CALL GAMES AT 4:05 P. M.

A double header will open the interclass baseball series this afternoon on south Ferry field, when the soph and fresh lits will take a whirl, and the fresh laws will stack up against the pharmies. The games will be called at 4:05 o'clock.

Much interest is being shown this season in the teams and the prospects point to the class fans seeing some high class ball. The men on the nines are for the most part players of some experience and have been working out their stiff joints for the past two weeks.

The winners of today's battle, between the literary men, will play the victors in the contest between the senior and junior lits Tuesday and the team coming out with the long end of the count in the fresh law-pharmic game will meet the victors in the senior junior argument which will be decided Thursday.

COSMOPOLITANISM DISCUSSED AT ANNUAL CLUB BANQUET

Dr. Angell and Pres. Hutchins Speak on Michigan's Contributions to Race Problem.

Dr. James R. Angell and President Harry B. Hutchins are delegates to the peace conference at St. Louis at the present time, but I feel that their presence here tonight is doing more for international peace than it would in St. Louis," said Regent Junius Beal at the annual banquet of the International Cosmopolitan club last night at Newberry hall.

Representatives from 24 countries were present and enjoyed a menu of oriental dishes, cooked by Chinese students. Musical numbers were furnished by Kenneth Westerman, '12, Mark Wisdom, '13, and Marten Ten Hoor, '13.

Dr. Angell said that the relation of one race to another is one of the most important questions of the day and that the presence of so many foreign students at Michigan is contributing greatly to the solution of this problem. President Hutchins stated that there were two reasons why Michigan is the most cosmopolitan college in this country, that it is democratic and that there are men here whose reputations draw students.

Other talks were made by Prof. J. A. C. Hildner, and William Welsh, '12. Prof. J. P. Bird acted as toastmaster.

SENIOR LAWS WILL BANQUET AT ALLENEL HOTEL TOMORROW

An invitation has been extended to all members of the law faculty by the senior class to attend its annual banquet, which is to be held tomorrow night at the Allenel hotel. Dean H. M. Bates of the law department and Profs. Evans Holbrook and R. E. Bunker will represent the faculty on the program, and five members of the class will also speak. Tickets for the dinner are selling for $1.50 and may be obtained from the banquet committee.

NINETEEN MEN TAKE TRIP FOR CORNELL MEET

Michigan's Track Squad Leaves to Face Athletes of Eastern School in Contest Tomorrow.

CAPTAIN HAFF GOES BUT WILL BE UNABLE TO RUN.

Light Workout Held Yesterday Afternoon; Lamey and White Show Good Form.

With strong hopes for a victory, Trainer Farrell packed 19 men in the pink of condition on the 8:30 Michigan Central train last night bound for Ithaca, the haunt of the Cornell track warriors. In addition to this number the crippled captain was taken, and Varsity Manager Dennison in charge of arrangements. By the planned itinerary, the Wolverines will strike their journey's end this morning and will work the kinks out of their muscles on the Cornell track in the afternoon.

Not convinced by the trials held Wednesday afternoon, that Lamey the half-miler, and W. H. White, the high-jumper, would not when in shape, show enough stuff to warrant being carried "Steve" Farrell gave them both a last chance yesterday. His confidence in them was justified when Lamey romped over the half-mile distance in close to two minutes, and White cleared the bar at 5 feet, 7 inches without apparent effort.

None of the other track men worked at a hot pace, the trainer figuring that they would be in better trim for Saturday if given the benefit of a two day's rest. H. Smith was out with the hammer for a short time, and made some throws that if repeated in the meet should put him up near Kohler in the finals.

Haff's case does not seem so gloomy as it did at first glance, and Farrell is beginning to count upon him to be back in condition for the inter-collegiates, if not before. With this star out of the meet tomorrow, the doped out results will have to be changed, but Michigan still appears to be the favorite in the calculations.

The entries for the Michigan-Cornell dual meet are as follows:

100 yard dash—Seward, Bond, (M); Keller, Ingersoll, Phillipi, Cozzens, Van Winkle, Mehaffey, (C).

220 yard dash—Seward, Bond, C. S. White, (M); Keller, Ingersoll, Phillipi, Van Winkle, Mehaffey, Cozzens, Bennett, (C).

880 yard run—Jansen, Brown, Lamey, (M); Jones, Snyder, Burgdorff, Chapman, Beckwith, King, Brown, Spates, Cornwell, McGolrick, (C).

Mile run—Haimbaugh, S. M. Smith, Brown, Lamey, (M); Jones, Brown, Burgdorff, Ward, Beckwith, Finch, McGolrick, (C).

BLANSHARD TO CONTEST WITH PICK OF WEST

Northern Oratorical League Teams Will Compete at Oberlin Tonight; Leased Wire Reports For The Daily.

MICHIGAN PITTED AGAINST SIX OTHER SCHOOLS IN MEET

Professor Trueblood Highly Commends Oration of Wolverine Delegate for the Competition.

Michigan is represented against six other schools in the Northern Oratorical League contest at Oberlin, Ohio, tonight by Percival Y. Blanshard, '14.

For the first time in the history of the league contests, of which Michigan has won the lion's share, a girl is competing. Among the 24 entries in the university contest last semester for the right of competing for Michigan in the league contest, there was also one girl entered.

The speakers, the schools which they represent, and their subjects, are given in the order in which they speak. Luther H. Culick, Oberlin college, "The Fight for Modernism;" Alvin C. Rice, Wisconsin, "The Toll of Industry;" George Gordon Glick, State University of Iowa, "Slaves of Tradition;" J. Howard Hinshaw, University of Illinois, "Liberty and License;" Lillian Burns, University of Minnesota, "The Significance of the Women's Movement;" P. Y. Blanchard, University of Michigan, "Christianity and the Social Crisis;" and Deary L. Wells, Northwestern university, "The Patriotism of Progress."

Before leaving yesterday, Blanshard had a final public rehearsal. Prof. Trueblood declared that the speech had never been given as well, and that he entertained high hopes of again wluning the league contest. Prof. Trueblood accompanied Blanshard to Oberlin.

Arrangements have been made whereby The Michigan Daily will receive a special report of the contest tonight by a specially leased wire service, and will publish an exclusive account in Saturday morning's issue.

FRESH WIELDERS ARE IN FORM.

Twenty-Five Men Compete to Fill Four Places.

Freshmen racket wielders are working over time in order to decide who will win the four places on the freshman tennis team. There are 25 men entered in the contest and each aspirant must play three sets with each of his 24 rivals.

The youngsters are displaying some first class material and from the results thus far, there will be many men hovering at the top. With the advantage of this season's preliminary training the youthful "servers" will be in better shape to fill out any vacancies that may appear on the Varsity team next year.

PLANS FOR NEW DETENTION HOSPITAL NEAR COMPLETION

Plans for the new detention hospital will be completed within a month or six weeks, and then the actual work on the construction of the building will be started.

Some time ago, the city appropriated $25,000 for the erection of this hospital, placing the supervision of the plans, administrative work, and general control in the hands of the university authorities. When finished the building will be located back of the psychopathic ward.

Detroiter Speaks to Law Students.

More than 180 students of the law department attended the lecture given by Mr. Hal H. Smith, of Detroit, in the law building yesterday. "Compensation Acts and Their Relation to the Law of Torts" was the subject of Mr. Smith's address.

Union Dance Tickets Go on Sale.

Tickets for Saturday night's membership dance at the Union were placed on sale yesterday afternoon. The committee in charge consists of Chester H. Lang, '15, chairman, F. J. Hoffmeister, '14L, and Freeman Pattison, '14E. The chaperones will be Prof. and Mrs. E. N. Durfee and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Stevens.

NOTED BARITONE TO SING AT FESTIVAL

Signor Pasquale Amato, of the Metropolitan Forces, to Appear Friday Night.

SELDOM GOES OUTSIDE NEW YORK

Among the offerings on the program of the music festival in Hill Auditorium, May 14 to 17, is Signor Pasquale Amato, one of the greatest baritones who has been heard in any country.

Sig. Amato's first appearance in America took place at the Metropolitan opera house in 1908. Since that time he has risen rapidly to the post-tion of perhaps the most popular and successful baritone in the Metropolitan forces. He has also appeared to some extent in concert, mostly before the society element in New York, and everywhere has won great success.

Ann Arbor is fortunate in securing this distinguished singer for the festival, as he does not often appear outside of New York City. A beautiful voice and a distinctive personal charm will no doubt win for Sig. Amato, here the same ovation he has had elsewhere.

He will sing in only one concert, the so-called "Popular" program of Friday evening, and will give some of his famous arias from Verdi, Leoncavallo and Massenet.

FRESH ENGINEERS TO HOLD SMOKER UP RIVER TONIGHT

Fresh engineers will hold a novel smoker this evening in the form of a "Pow Wow" on the banks of the Huron river. The class will meet at the Michigan Central depot at 7:30 p. m. and proceed in a body to Cascade Glen, where smokes, eats, and ginger ale will be passed around by the committees in charge. A large camp fire will be built, around which the men will sing Michigan songs. Dean Mortimer E. Cooley, Prof. B. F. Bailey, and Dr. W. D. Moriarty, of the engineering department, will give camp fire talks.

SENIOR ENGINEERS MUST PAY DUES TO GET IN PICTURE.

All senior engineers must pay their class dues today, tomorrow morning, or Monday morning if they wish to appear in the class picture. Since class dues of 50 cents per year and a general tax of $3.00 must be paid before graduation, the committee is particularly anxious that all pay dues before Monday noon. Payment should be made at the table in the second floor hall of the engineering building.

1916 ENGINEERS MAKE HONESTY RULING POWER

Class Adopts New Phase of Honor System as Advocated by Union and Class Presidents.

RESOLUTIONS FORMULATED TO GOVERN ALL ACTIVITIES.

Round Button is Selected to be Worn on Cap as a Class Distinction.

By adopting the honor system Wednesday, the fresh engineers went on record as the first class of their department to comply with the proposals which were outlined by the committee of class presidents, acting under the auspices of the Michigan Union.

The resolution favoring the honor system reads: "This class will adopt the honor system, and make honesty our ruling power. In all future examinations we will abide by the honor system. Being trusted, the instructor may leave us on our honor. We will agree not to cheat, and will have the liberty to converse or leave the room for any length of time we may choose."

The class formulated a set of resolutions to govern the assembling of the members of the athletic activities, the encouraging of class social functions, the holding of monthly assemblies, and a provision was made for a grouping system to be effective during the four years of college.

A distinctive button was selected to be worn on the cap. The shape of the button is to be round, with the numerals '16 set on a yellow background.

GRIFFINS TAKE 11 MORTALS

Messengers of Gods Select Earthbelngs and Ascend Mt. Olympus.

At the hour of seven, the celestial visitors descended upon the campus flag-pole and led the humble earthbeings to the heights of Mt. Olympus.

The gods tarried at the Union before returning to their abode where an initiation banquet was held, and the new men were regaled with Griffin customs and traditions. "Hal" Hulburt acted as toastmaster, and toasts were responded to by "Ed" Lazear, Prof. Henri Hue, Prof. J. B. Waite, and "Lou" Haller.

The mortals who first tasted the sacred ambrosia last night are: Prof. J. B. Waite, W. H. Hamilton, "Chink" Bond, "Pat" Crowe, "Wald" Fellows, "Gee" Gault, "Lou" Haller, "Tommy" Hughitt, "Rus" Mills, "Sis" Sisler, and "Chuck" Webber.

"B.B.'S" WILL BE AWARDED TO WOMEN BASKETBALL TEAM.

Members of the sophomore women's basketball team will be awarded their "B.B.'s" as campus champions at the annual basketball dinner in Barbour gym, tomorrow evening at 8:00 o'clock. Class numerals will be awarded to members of each of the four class teams and captains and managers for the coming season will be elected by the various classes. The dinner is open to all university women. Tickets can be secured from class captains, Edel Ehrhorn, '13, Sophie Herman, '14, Elsa Dritter, '15, or Ruth Graybill, '16, for 25 cents.
