"Some Homely Ideals of Education" has been chosen as the subject of the address which will be given by Dean Mortimer E. Cooley, of the college of engineering, before the third convocation assemblage in the Hill auditorium at 3:00 o'clock this afternoon.

Dispensing with the usual lengthy exercises of past years, Michigan's annual convocation in Hill auditorium is scheduled to take less than an hour's time. Unison singing is to be a feature of the program, and President Harry B. Hutchins yesterday made a request that the student body and faculty join in heartily.

Every student in the university will be enabled to attend the exercises, as all classes will be dismissed at 2:00 o'clock. Immediately afterward the classes will form, according to years, before marching in a body into the big hall.

Dean Cooley's address will not last more than 30 minutes, and the only other speaker on the program will be President Hutchins, whose talk will probably be confined mostly to a few words of welcome to the first year students.

Two musical numbers will be offered by Earl Moore, '12, on the organ, while the unison singing of "Ann Arbor, The of Thee" and "The Yellow and Blue" will comprise the vocal program.

Student marshals for the various classes have been appointed as follows: Graduate school, R. W. Clark, L. E. Cressman. Senior class marshals: J. B. Angell, literary; A. H. Keeler, engineering; A. Y. Moninger, architecture; J. O. Dieterle, medical; E. R. McCall, law; R. F. Smith, pharmacy; H. C. Allen, homeopathic; F. G. Dratz, dental. Junior class marshals: E. B. Sylvester, literary; E. J. Huntington, engineering; G. A. Bellows, architecture; George M. McClure, medical; E. R. Houseman, law; George H. Elnzel, pharmacy; H. F. Close, homeopathic; R. H. Burkhardt, dental. Sophomore class marshals: W. Lloyd Kemp, literary; C. Swartiguer, engineering; C. W. Atwood, architecture; E. L. Hammond, pharmacy; E. D. Crumpacher, law; C. C. Hyde, medical; Edward Stebbins, homeopathic. Freshman class marshals: Stephen Clark, literary; S. C. Smith, engineering; D. P. Wood, engineering; M. L. Smith, architecture; Robert Novy, medical; W. E. Kirchressner, pharmacy; J. D. Van Scholck, homeopathic; F. B. Vedder, dental.

The members of the several faculties assemble in University hall, don robes, and form in column of twos in main corridor, facing front entrance.

Graduate school students assemble in single column on opposite sides of the main walk in front of University hall. The students of this department should stand sufficiently apart to occupy the entire length of walk on both sides, and face the walk.

Students who have received a degree other than those registered in the Graduate school, and senior and junior medical students, not holding degrees, shall assemble with 1916 class group.

G. H. PUTNAM, FAMOUS VETERAN AND WRITER, COMING TO ANN ARBOR

Publisher and Writer Speaks Next Week Under Historical Association Auspices

"PUBLIC AMBASSADOR" HAS AIDED ANGLO-AMERICAN PEACE

LECTURER DISCUSSES AFFAIRS WITH LORD KITCHENER

The Honorable George Haven Putnam, famous publisher, writer and Civil War veteran, will speak under the auspices of the University Historical association on Thursday, October 21, in Sarah Caswell Angell hall. Mr. Putnam is the best known of all American publishers, having earned this recognition by his constant writing and leadership in important cultural movements in this and other countries.

It has been said that Mr. Putnam has done more to strengthen the relations between England and America than any other living man, and he is often called the ambassador of the American public to England. His close associations with the publishers of England have brought him in touch with the world of English letters. He has discussed problems with Lord Kitchener and is an intimate friend of the Honorable George Trevelyan, the famed historian, who delivered a lecture in Ann Arbor last year.

As an author, he is constantly at work, and his recent book on the "Memories of a Publisher" illustrates his keen appreciation of the accomplishments of others. In addition to this, his volume on the "Memories of My Youth" is rated as one of the best of modern productions.

Rain, snow or shine, the sophomores and freshmen will meet for the annual fall underclass contests at 9:30 o'clock on south Ferry field tomorrow morning. Last year the class of 1918 was defeated by the score of 4-0 in the fall games, and they are determined to come back with a decisive victory over the 1919 class this year. Ward Peterson, '19, has been appointed to direct the freshmen forces against the sophomore onslaught, and Archie Walls, '18, will captain the second year delegation.

Harold Smith, '16, has been appointed referee of the contests, and George V. Labadie, lit. spec., and L. H. Benton, 1915, will be the judges. All freshmen and sophomores will be excused from classes on Saturday morning.

Members of the sophomore class turned out for their mass meeting last night 900 strong. They were addressed by Francis F. McKinney, '14L, who presided at the meeting; Harold Smith, '16; Francis T. Mack, '16E, and T. P. Soddy, '16E.

Not content with the one mass meeting provided for them by the student council, the freshmen class held a second meeting at the Majestic theater yesterday afternoon. More than 700 yearlings turned out to display more fighting spirit in preparation for the contest Saturday morning.

ARREST OF THREE STUDENTS RESULT OF MAJESTIC RUSH

C. E. WORTH, '14L, H. F. SHANK '18, AND C. H. CAROLTHERS, '18, ARRAIGNED

TRIAL OCCURS THIS MORNING

Glass Doors of Main Entrance and Large Window Smashed by Crowd

In a sophomore class rush on the Majestic theater last night just before the second show, Clarence E. Worth, '14E, C. M. Caroulthers, '18, and Harold F. Shank, '18, were arrested by the police and arraigned on a charge of disorderly conduct. The men were later released on bail of $50 each, and were remanded for examination at the police court at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

About 200 men were in the crowd which gathered about the theater before the close of the first performance, and when Manager Frank J. O'Donnell of the Majestic refused to grant the men a free show they immediately rushed the theater. A number of policemen and several reinforcements from the sheriff's office endeavored to quiet the crowd, and in the melee which ensued Worth, who is an employe of a Detroit automobile firm, and who held a ticket for the second performance, was apprehended by the police for attempting to force his way in.

This so incensed the crowd that, despite the efforts of W. A. P. John, '16, who endeavored to disperse the assemblage, the glass doors of the main entrance were smashed and one of the large windows and a large arc light in the front of the building were broken.

The damage is estimated at $25.

According to T. P. Soddy, '16E, president of the student council, a special meeting of that body will be called for this evening at 7:15 o'clock in the north wing of University hall for the purpose of investigating the riot and to take measures for the punishment of the participants.

CHARLES MOORE TALKS ON NOTED PERSONAGES IN MICHIGAN'S HISTORY

Largest Audience of Convention Hears Comprehensive Survey of Big Men of State

PROFESSORS HENDERSON, RIGGS, RUTHVEN AND REEVES SPEAK

UNIVERSITY'S RELATIONS WITH THE STATE OF TOPIC OF HILL TODAY

Charles Moore, one of the most eminent historical authorities in this state, and secretary of the State Historical commission, spoke interestingly and thoughtfully before the Michigan Library association in Memorial hall last evening on the subject, "Michigan Worthies Worth Knowing." Probably the largest audience of the convention greeted Mr. Moore.

The speaker made a rapid but intensive survey of the worthies of Michigan history, beginning in the distant past with the dim figures of men like Father Marquette and carrying the study up through the lists of famous citizens of the state to the latest times.

The first half hour of this morning's conference at 9:00 o'clock will be devoted to a business session at which the main topic of discussion will be the question of the relation of the university to the state. At 9:40 o'clock Mr. M. W. Bishop, university librarian, will preside at the final meeting of the conference, in which the extension work of the university will receive special consideration.

Prof. W. D. Henderson will deliver an address on the subject of "The University Extension Service." Dr. F. G. Novy will speak on "The College of Medicine," and Prof. J. S. Reeves will tell of the work being accomplished by the bureau of municipal research. The "College of Engineering" will be the topic taken by Prof. H. E. Riggs, and Prof. A. G. Ruthven will speak on "The Museums."

Those delegates who are able to remain over for this afternoon will be guests of the Civic association in a special automobile tour of the city. The cars will leave Alumni Memorial hall at 3:00 o'clock and will return in time for the university convocation parade.

DUMBA, HOMEWARD BOUND, PREDICTS WAR FOR AMERICA

EX-AMBASSADOR DENOUNCES MUNITIONS TRADE WITH ALLIES

ZEPPELIN DEATH TOLL GROWS

Russian Emperor On Way to Front; Martial Law Declared in Netherlands

London, Oct. 14.—"The Germans and Austrians will surely declare war on the United States if they do not stop sending munitions to the allies," was the statement of Dr. Constantin Dumba, former Austrian ambassador to the United States, who is a passenger on the steamer "New Amsterdam."

The ambassador in giving the statement to the press showed no reserve in his denunciation of the neutrality policy which is being followed by the United States.

The Hague, Oct. 14.—Partial martial law was declared here today in order to facilitate the distribution of army supplies to the army of The Netherlands. According to prominent government officials, however, the order is purely local in character and does not imply the leaning of the Dutch government toward any of the belligerent nations.

Petrograd, Oct. 14.—The Russian emperor is on his way to the front and will assume nominal control of the Russian army. He is accompanied by the Crown Prince Alexis.

London, Oct. 14.—The British capital was aghast today when it learned that in addition to the 41 casualties reported yesterday in the latest Zeppelin raid, investigation had proceeded that 14 other civilians had met death from the German air machine. The later reports also place the list of wounded at 114, 12 more than it was at first believed had been injured by the falling bombs.

At a mass meeting today precautions for the safeguarding of the populace were discussed, and bitter denunciation of the government's delay in providing better defenses against aerial attacks was hotly discussed.

This raid brings the total casualties by German air raids to 177 killed and 465 wounded.

London, Oct. 14.—The foreign office today made public a statement that the sole object of the British interest in the Balkans was to intercept the German raids which have been occurring so frequently of late on Constantinople.

President Leases Long Branch Home

Washington, Oct. 14.—In a statement made public here today it was announced that the summer home of President Wilson has been moved from Cornish, N. H., to Long Branch, a place not far distant. JOHN HAS ATTACHMENT TO ANN ARBOR, SO "IKE" GOES TO JAIL

"Ike" Cox was arraigned before Justice of the Peace John D. Thomas yesterday afternoon on the charge of having appropriated $3.60 belonging to his employer, Mr. C. S. Schneider. He pleaded guilty and was assessed a fine and costs which amounted to $16.65, or serve 30 days in jail. He was unable to produce the fine and was committed to jail.

Mr. Schneider told the court that he was willing to pay the fine and costs as well as reinstate the prisoner in his employ on the condition that the prisoner's brother, John Cox, would leave the city at once. John refused to comply with Schneider's request and his brother is still languishing in the county bastile.

SCENE IN THE OPERETTA "SARI"

MANY ATTEND CONCERT

MOORE OPENED THE PROGRAM WITH FAMOUS SONATA FOR THE ORGAN

The second faculty concert given in Hill auditorium yesterday afternoon in honor of the Library association was well attended.

Mr. Moore opened the program with the Borowski Sonata, for the organ, with the dignified allegro, followed by the more somber andante and the moderato with its brighter colorings.

"Ah, fors'e lui" (La Traviata), Verdi, was skillfully given by Miss Ada Grace Johnson in a true, fluent voice, perhaps a little shrill at times.

"Angelus," by Massenet, was substituted for the "Meditation" which was announced, and the change was a pleasing one, bringing a dignified religious atmosphere.

"The Star," "A Pastoral" and "The Birth of Morn" were offered by Miss Johnson with technical precision.

Arrangements have been made, however, to sell reserved seats at Wahr's Book store, 316 South State street, on Friday from 10:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m., and full information may be secured during this reservation.

"SUPPORT CHEERLEADERS"

SENIOR MAKES PLEA THAT STUDENTS STOP JEERING AT TRYOUTS

To the Editor of The Michigan Daily:

It would seem that, when members of the Athletic board and others are doing their utmost to build up a more unified spirit at Ferry field and elsewhere, the least a thinking man could do to help conditions would be to support the cheerleaders who have so kindly offered their services to the cause. It some of the "fresh" element would get out and try to lead 5,000 men, they would find it a different proposition from what it seems in the stands. It is just that element that keeps Michigan from having the best spirit in the country. Why can't we stamp it out? If we all get together we can make those men, if we can convince them as such, come to their senses. These cheerleaders have evidently been selected because they are the best material that can be found on the campus. Why not give them a chance to help Michigan by helping them? It is easy, though jeering is easier.

Michigan has always been noted for the above element, and it should not be so. If we all would look at such matters with the idea that it is for Michigan, the poor spirit would be stamped out. Our cheerleaders aren't out there with the feeling, "Here I am; I'm a pretty swell fellow," which is the feeling I am ashamed to acknowledge, a good many of our jeering friends would have, but they are there with Michigan in their hearts, trying to help her. Why can't we all be that way? Let's fight 'em.

A SENIOR.

DOUBTFUL WHETHER SCORES WILL SECURE PASSAGE FROM GERMANY

Dr. Kunwald, director of the Cincinnati symphony orchestra, included a number of novelties in his program for this year, and although it has been doubtful whether the scores would secure passage from Germany to this country, several scores have already received. The following works are expected: "Isle of the Dead," a symphonic poem by Rachmaninoff; a serenade for strings by Robert Fuchs, a modern German composer, and De Busscy's "Rendez des Printemps."

Because of the oppression to which the Armenian people have been subjected, plans have been made for every member to aid in doing all possible to raise funds for the benefit of the needy in the fatherland.

A state-wide movement is being planned that will take its start from the campus at the University of Michigan, and the support of Michigan men is expected.

Arrangements for a concert are being made, at which several noted Armenians will appear in Ann Arbor. The proceeds of this event will go to the Armenian relief fund.
