Cooking by Clock—

In the Arabian tale, a nicely prepared meal promptly made its appearance out of the air when Aladdin rubbed his Wonderful Lamp.

Nowadays, a Electric Range cooking, the magic lamp is replaced with a clock, which automatically awakens the cooking. All you have to do is to put the food in the range, set the clock —and forget the kitchen till dinner-time.

Electric Range cooking is done without burning even a bit of food, without watching, without trouble or anxiety, without smoke or dust or fumes —and with perfect cleanliness.
