Tickets for 'Manila Square' Will Go on Sale Tomorrow

Dance To Be Held Saturday, April 19

Tickets for "Manila Square," a barn dance sponsored by the Joseph Ralston Hayden Memorial Library Committee will go on sale tomorrow in the Union, League and University Hall.

The dance will be given from 9 p.m. to midnight Saturday, April 19 in Watterman Gymnasium. Tiny Doolittle and his band will provide music for the affair.

Since many formal dances are being presented Friday night, the central committee has decided to make "Manila Square" a semi-reel bid affair. Both men and women may invite dates. This arrangement will allow women to repay their formal dates.

Proceeds from the dance will go to a fund to rebuild at the University of the Philippines a library named after Joseph Ralston Hayden, former professor of political science at the University of Michigan.

Since the theme of the dance will be rural, women are requested to wear peasant skirts and men to wear blue jeans, fatigues or other informal attire.

Doolittle and his band will play special numbers for square dancing in addition to their regular music for social dancing. Decorations and programs have been planned to fit the theme.

The committee for the dance include: Lynne Sperber, Rosalyn Long, Irene Johnson, Paul Marince, Bobbie Strumsky, Nate Altshuler, Jim Risk, Ruth Gerber, Bob Schneiderman, Jan Kemp, Marge Kolhaus, and Jeanne Baird.

League Dancing Aides Needed

Women are still needed as assistant teachers in the beginning section of the League Dancing Classes which meets from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. today.

The class, instructed by John Quin, will learn basic steps and variations. Latin American dances will be taught later in the semester.

Activity credit is given to coeds participating. Women may sign up at the time of the class.

Michigras Contest To Close Friday

Entries in the Michigras slogan contest are due Friday, according to Jack Harlan, Michigras publicity co-chairman.

A prize of ten dollars will be awarded to the person submitting the slogan which is judged best by the Michigras committee. Slogans may be submitted to Harlan at 548 S. State Street or to the WAA box in the League Undergraduate Office.

There will be a meeting of all Intramural managers at 5 p.m. tomorrow in the WAB. All dorms should send representatives.

Crease Ball Will Be Given

Annual Law School Formal To Be Held by Honor Society

Crease Ball will be held Friday, May 2 in the Ballroom of the Michigan League.

Crease Ball was originally held at the same time as Slide Rule Ball and until 1937 was held in the Lawyer's Club. Tradition reveals that the name originated from the creases the lawyers have in their trousers.

Central committee members are formulating plans for decorations and the band. The name of the band will be revealed at a later date.

The formal is presented by the Barristers, honor society of senior lawyers for students in the Law School. The dance was revived last year after being discontinued in 1942 due to the war.

Members of the central committee for the affair are Ned Glad, Roy Tollefson, Monroe Fink, James O'Connor, and Tom Dougherty.

Traditional West Quad Spring Dance To Be Presented as Costume Ball

Tickets for the "Beaux Arts" costume ball which will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Friday, April 18 in the Union Ballroom, may be obtained in each of the eight houses of West Quad.

"Beaux Arts" is the theme for this year's "Spring Fantasy," given annually by the men of West Quadrangle. The committee decided on this plan after looking for something to end the usual formal-semi-formal routine, according to Fred Klein, publicity chairman.

Invitations have been sent to several other men's residences, including Fletcher and Vaughn houses. All women attending the dance will be given 1:30 a.m. late permission.

Lee Stewart and his orchestra will provide the music for dancing in a Parisian arts atmosphere. Hundreds of balloons will hang from the ceiling to add to the effect.

All those attending the dance are expected to wear special costumes, and the committee has announced that prizes will be awarded for the best and most original ones.

Bud Weber is general chairman of the affair, and is assisted by Joe Miller, associate chairman; Fred Klein, Dave Thomas and Jack Dietrich, publicity; Munroe Talianferro, tickets; Dick Benner, finance; Chuck Burt, programs; Josh Barnes, patrons; Roger Rosenisch, chaperones; and Lay Berry, Dick Hirn, John Harlan, Frank Zagelmeyer, and Dick Clark, decorations.
